

Lantana X 'Dallas Red' Dallas Red Lantana

This colorful hybrid Lantana has bright red flowers with golden yellow highlights. The flower show begins in spring and continues well into the fall. 'Dallas Red' is quite vigorous, and can reach three to five feet tall and wide in just one growing season. Wide-spreading growth fills in large areas with bright green foliage until first frost. Plants recover quickly in the spring. The flowers attract butterflies. This tough plant is deer resistant and very heat tolerant.
